Dear Friends,

I am pleased to present the District Bridges 2021 Annual Report. As an organization, we strive to serve our neighborhoods and business community passionately, consistently, equitably, and with a mindset towards innovation. In this year’s report, we are highlighting many, though certainly not all, of the organization’s accomplishments and activities that advance our vision to build more resilient, equitable, and connected communities here in DC and beyond.

That vision has never been more relevant than today, as our world navigates the uncertain path towards economic and social recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic. While grief and loss incurred over the last year and a half are deeply felt in our communities, we have seen first-hand stories of resilience, hope, and creativity in each of our neighborhoods. Whether it has been a story of a small business owner pivoting to save their business while also meeting the needs of their community or of neighbors pitching in to support a small business through their darkest hour, through our work we have been given a front-row seat to witness the best of our communities.

In 2021, through our seven Main Street programs, we were able to serve over 1,000 small businesses in Chevy Chase, Cleveland Park, Columbia Heights and Mount Pleasant, Lower Georgia Avenue, Logan Circle, U Street and Woodley Park. Our dedicated staff have delivered over 2,860 hours of direct technical assistance to businesses, awarded over $290,511 in small business grants to 107 businesses and leveraged over $8,817,347 in other grants to our businesses and corridors. While we are proud of our impact, it is only scratching the surface of the tremendous need of small businesses across our city.

As a values-driven organization, we have invested in creating a culture that believes that our impact is an outgrowth of living out our values of relationship, inclusion, diversity, story, collaboration, innovation, solution-oriented, and fun on a daily basis.

As you review our 2021 Annual Report, I trust that you will see the impact that these values are having in our communities. I invite you to celebrate with us what we have achieved this year and to invest in the work that lies ahead in the coming year. On behalf of myself, the staff, and Board of District Bridges, thank you to all of our businesses, partners, volunteers, patrons, and community advocates for the time, commitment and kindness you show us and one another everyday!

Sincerely,

Brianne Dornbush
Executive Director
District Bridges fosters equitable, resilient, connected communities in Washington, DC and beyond. Dedicated to supporting small businesses and investing in community, District Bridges is a solution-driven advisory and execution practice centered on socially impactful community development and micro-economic growth.

As the first multi-Main Street organization in the nation, District Bridges developed a model that makes managing Main Street programs a turnkey operation. We streamline the operational setup of new programs, creating economies of scale and increasing staff capacity. Our strategic approach to community development considers the holistic needs of the city and creates solutions in collaboration with community stakeholders. District Bridges understands that every community has its own priorities, so we work side-by-side with neighborhoods to identify critical needs and leverage the community’s unique skills and assets.

Our vision is to thrive together in equitable, resilient, connected communities here in DC and beyond. To achieve this collective vision, District Bridges identified and endeavors to achieve the following Ultimate Outcomes:

- Equitable, strengthened, and connected communities with a strong sense of place
- Sustainable and self-determined small businesses
- Human-scaled commercial corridors with vibrant, valued small businesses

You are a trusted partner to business owners for all things... especially being supportive and doing outreach during COVID, letting everyone know about grants and help!

DEPLOYING CAPITAL
As a new program, Chevy Chase Main Street focused on getting capital funds into the hands of small businesses. While many businesses were able to navigate PPP loans, several businesses struggled to find resources for important projects like HVAC repair and physical accessibility amongst COVID-specific grants. Working with volunteers and businesses, CCMS’ first grant round helped demonstrate the value a Main Street can provide while also encouraged local businesses to invest in improvements that benefit the community as well as the coordination and time of volunteers.

$51,000
CCMS distributed grants to 13 small businesses for costs including storefront renovations, equipment purchase, social distance compliance, outdoor dining structures, and enhanced signage.

Adjacent to Rock Creek Park and named after President Grover Cleveland, this uptown tree-lined neighborhood provides a much needed respite from sweltering downtown during hotter months. Cleveland Park boasts several family businesses established in the 1960s as well as more recently opened popular establishments and has a neighborhood feel in a city that can sometimes feel so transient.

A CIVIC PLAZA FOR ALL

Under a grant from NACTO and in collaboration with DDOT, District Bridges’ Columbia Heights Main Street program launched a 5 month pilot program to reactivate the Columbia Heights Civic Plaza for the entire community to enjoy. The program included bringing resources for neighbors who are unhoused or experiencing substance use disorder, implementing a new outdoor dining area, providing free community outdoor fitness classes and activities, hosting bicycle maintenance pop-ups, installing a bike maintenance station, and organizing monthly cultural events. The pilot will continue into FY22 through earmarked funds from DC Ward 1 Councilmember Brianne Nadeau.

LCMS distributed grants to 17 small businesses for costs including COVID-19 emergency relief, stretery improvements, program development, and more.

Building Momentum
In its second year, LCMS focused on building momentum. The program expanded technical assistance offerings and volunteer opportunities, connecting businesses with resources to weather the pandemic. Tammy Vodinh, the General Manager of Pearl Dive Oyster Bar, said the reason they stayed in business this year was due to the help from the Main Street. LCMS also expanded programming, starting a new event series with support from the National Main Street Center called Burn and Brunch. The event series paired exercise classes with discounts and restaurants, working to support the fitness businesses that were having trouble due to regulations for indoor activities.

LGAMS is a diverse small business corridor with over ten languages spoken on its one and half miles. Many of the businesses are legacy businesses, having been on Georgia Avenue for more than 20 years.

$39,500

LGAMS distributed grants to 14 small businesses for costs including legal support, COVID-19 rent relief, signage and exterior improvements.

Connecting Businesses with Resources and Capital

With over 200 businesses on the corridor, Lower Georgia Avenue Main Street focused on leveraging the Main Street’s capacity and resources for greater impact. Partnering with DC Bar Pro Bono’s Commercial Lease Clinic, LEDC’s Pro Biz Program, and a commercial real estate agent, LGAMS was able to specifically help 25 businesses renegotiate and better understand their lease obligations. Additionally, LGAMS supported businesses in obtaining an additional $1.7 million in relief funding from federal and local programs.
